

Corning Museum of Glass Tour

📍 Corning Museum of Glass, 1, Museum Way, City of Corning, Steuben County, New York, 14830, United States

Step into a fascinating world of art, science, and innovation at the Corning Museum of Glass. This immersive tour takes you through thousands of years of glassmaking history, showcasing stunning masterpieces, live demonstrations, and interactive exhibits. Watch skilled artisans shape molten glass into beautiful creations, explore contemporary glass art galleries, and even try your hand at making your own glass souvenir. Perfect for families, art lovers, and curious minds, this experience blends creativity and education in a truly unique way.

Tour Facts

Group Size:

10

Duration:

3

Language:

English, Spanish, French (on request)

Tour Type:

continuous

Tour Itinerary

Arrival : Museum Entry

Arrive at the museum and begin your self-guided or guided exploration.

Mid Visit : Live Demonstrations

Watch live glassblowing shows and learn about techniques used by artisans.

Exploration : Galleries & Exhibits

Discover historic and contemporary glass art collections from around the world.

Departure : Museum Exit

Wrap up your visit and explore the gift shop before departure.